

LIST of educational "homework helper" and research web sites [Peter J. Jessen/1-23-00 (9-14-99)]

Whither schooling? How to merge the physical (school buildings, classrooms, etc.) with the virtual (Internet, satellite, closed circuit)? The Internet can be a great help to students, parents, and educators alike: tutorials, conducting research, research results, any information/news/opinion/etc, class web pages. Access from home, school, library, an office of parents or friends, homes of friend's, community center.
